

SUNDAY SCHOOLS HELP EDUCATION

Suggestions by Louisville Commercial Club.

BENEFITS OF CO-OPERATION.

Kentucky Sunday School Association Has Done Excellent Work, and Its Influence Can Be Extended Through the Efficient Aid of Public School Teachers and Superintendents.

The educational wave is rising in our old state. For a long time each and every organization that was helping the movement has been working independently. Now there is a desire to get together. The following report of a special committee on the work of the Sunday school association and that of the Louisville Commercial club, will explain itself.

The Kentucky Sunday School association has a splendid organization. Every county has some form of organization. Many of the people who are interested in all the best interests of the county are numbered among those who are connected with this association. These persons can be given a broader view of what the Sunday school, the public school and the home could do for the entire community, reaching into the physical, mental, social and spiritual development.

Not only the city pastors, but the rural pastors, who are in a measure leaders in the communities, are connected with the Sunday School association, and in many cases the public school teachers, superintendents of the county schools and others engaged in educational work.

The Commercial club is reaching through its wide system of publicity, the prizes it has been offering, and the correspondence conducted, many who are interested in true education but whose viewpoint is different from that of Sunday school workers.

The Kentucky Sunday School association holds conventions in almost every county in the state every year, attended by thousands of the better citizens. In addition to this several hundred district conventions and nearly a thousand rallies and conferences are held. This association also publishes the Kentucky Sunday School Reporter with a circulation of about 5,000 per month.

These two organizations could greatly strengthen and advance the work both are doing by securing one or more persons in each county who would represent both organizations. Under the direction of such persons a survey of many counties might be made, finding the present conditions and forming a common basis for future work. At the conventions held time could be given for the discussion of topics of vital interest for the upbuilding of the community, school, home and Sunday school and the length of the convention be increased to two entire days. The same thing could be done in district convention, rallies and institutes. By holding conferences where a wider range of topics would be presented each would be able to reach many that have not yet become interested. Then each could help the other.

Therefore we suggest:

First.—That in the future on all programs of institutes, conventions and rallies there be given a topic relating to the correlation of secular and religious education in the state along definite lines and that this topic be assigned to a person well informed on both religious and secular education.

In such way there might be the opportunity of bringing to the attention of people who have never thought on the matter the value of such correlation. Because of the wide opportunity which the Sunday school speaker has of reaching audiences in the state this would be the surest way of arousing enthusiasm, disseminating information and removing prejudice.

Second.—That in the future at all electing conventions—district, county and state—there be chosen superintendents who shall promote the co-operation of secular and religious educational forces along definite lines.

Third.—That whenever opportunities arise the possibility of the use of the church as a social center be emphasized and encouraged, making a possible opening for the dissemination of educational ideas.

Fourth.—That at the state convention this work be made a distinct feature of the program and if possible a department session be given it.

The Truant Law.

When this law is so openly set at naught as to bring a particular case to the attention of the public it is time that a halt was called and the malefactor made to suffer for his shortcomings. The sending of a child to school is a moral duty, and when this moral duty is neglected by those whose duty it is to observe it is the duty of the authorities to step in and take a hand. We want to say that if the county superintendent's attention is called to some flagrant violation and she is compelled to act the strong arm of the law will fall in no gentle manner upon the shoulders of the malefactor. Better send the kiddies to school, which is your duty, and where they belong and thereby fulfill your moral obligation as well as avoid a conflict with the school authorities.—Central Record.

NIGHT RIDERS

In Henderson "Tipped Off" And Vigilantes Are On Their Trail

Henderson, Ky., June 19.—Through the confession of a night rider here to-day, the Vigilance Committee organized to stamp out lawlessness in the tobacco area, obtained the names of a band of men who met recently at the Cheaney schoolhouse, to plan, it was alleged, outrages against tobacco planters. The vigilantes this afternoon arranged to send volunteers to bask the conspiracy.

One field of tobacco which the night riders are said to have determined to destroy, will be guarded with a machine gun and searchlight.

NO MONEY TO PAY PENSIONS

Until Legislature Meets And Makes Arrangements to Secure Funds

Frankfort, Ky., June 21.—The problem of paying pension claims, in spite of the fact the pension law says they shall be paid in a treasury check, is yet to be solved by the Auditor and Treasurer. Five hundred and four claims have been allowed, and 2,000 are awaiting the action of the Pension Board. Another payment will fall due in August, and when all these claims are allowed the treasury will have a disbursement of over $300,000 to meet.

Not that much money is in the treasury. If State warrants cannot be issued in payment, all pensions may be postponed until the Legislature meets and makes a special levy of 2 1/2 cents.

READY TO SUPPRESS ALL LAWLESSNESS

Gov. McCreary Says He Will Attempt To Run Down Alleged Night Riders

Frankfort, Ky., June 19.—Gov. McCreary says he stands ready to use all the power and resources at his command to protect the farmers of the Henderson stemming district from the depredations of night riders.

He said: "I am ready to lend all the assistance in my power to the suppression of lawlessness. No request has been made for troops. I was advised by people from there that soldiers could accomplish nothing. A delegation from Henderson county called on me in regard to the situation. I offered a reward for the arrest of the offenders. I told them that I had offered rewards in the name of the state in other counties, and the rewards had caused detectives to go into those counties in the hope of earning it."

"Later to a call from Henderson I stated that if requested I would employ detectives to go into the county and hunt for the perpetrators of these depredations. I am ready to do anything in the power of the Governor of the State to assist the local authorities."

Off For The Cave

Yesterday morning on train 52 the Bee Mammoth Cave party left this city on time. There were quite a number of people outside of the five lucky young ladies and the Chaplains. They arrived in Evansville on time and after a trip around the city they got on board the boat headed for the Mammoth Cave. They will be gone until Saturday afternoon. Several friends went as far as Evansville with them. A large streamer had been painted and tied on the back of the car with large letters saying that this car held the "Earlington Bee Mammoth Cave Contest Trip." That every body will have a good time goes without saying. Everything for their pleasure has been done and no money or time has been spared to make this trip the banner one.

Cupid Balked

Greenville, Ky., June 21.—Roy Reynolds, 18, and Ethel Choats, 14, a runaway couple from Earlington, were placed under detention here today by Constable Pittman. They had driven through in a surrey and expected to take the train here for Rockport, Ind., to be married. A message from the girl's father, S. F. Choats, of Earlington, asked that the couple be detained.

WEBB LAW

NOT CRIMINAL STATUTE

Attorney General Declares Violations Can Not Be Prosecuted In Federal Courts

Washington, June 19.—The Webb law forbidding interstate shipments of liquor into "dry" States is not a criminal statute, and violations of it cannot be prosecuted in United States Courts, Attorney Gen. McReynolds so declared in instructions sent to-day to every United States Attorney in the country. The law merely prohibits such interstate traffic and contains no penalty for infractions.

"Its purpose," said the Attorney General, "is to permit State laws to operate in respect of intoxicating liquors."

"The law simply deprives shippers of any privileges they might claim on the ground of interstate commerce and permits the application of State prohibition laws to interstate commerce in liquors."

In your dreariest hours she will be your sweet refuge, and in times of prosperity she will guard you from "the pride which goeth before a fall." She will bring you long nights of restful sleep at the end of your busy days and when other friends grow careless or disdainful, she will absorb you more and more. ## HOME GARDEN CLUBS GROWING

Campfire Girls of Louisville
Use Vacant Lots.

ADVICE FROM AN EXPERT.

Children Taught to Help Furnish Their Own Tables With Fresh Vegetables. Idea Is Spreading to Country Towns. Future Men and Women in Close Contact With Growing Things.

The continual cry, "Back to the soil," that is heard in the newspapers and magazines is keeping the attention of the people in the country as well as those in the city fixed on gardening and farming. This is not only true of the small town and the back country, but it is also true of our big cities, for home garden clubs are growing in popularity and in numbers each season.

This spring the city of Louisville organized a home garden club that gardening among men, women and children, and especially the children, might be pushed. That the work might be real and that definite results might be obtained, vacant lots were secured at various points and model gardens planted. A man who had practical experience was engaged to take charge of the work and is now busy moving from place to place suggesting plans and methods by which the children can help furnish their own tables with vegetables fresh from their own gardens.

The photo which accompanies this article was taken on the outskirts of Louisville, where a group of four Campfire Girls have a model four plot garden.

This work will have a vital effect upon the men and women of tomorrow by giving them an understanding and a growth which can only come through close contact with the soil and growing things. Education is gradually shifting to a rational use of books and a fuller use of the life which the child leads in the garden, in the home, and under blue skies. It means an education that makes red blood throb in young veins; it means an education that does things in the everyday world; it means an education that is close to the primitive; it means an education that fits the child for life.

"BACK TO THE SOIL."

Movement Can Be Aided by Modern Ideals and Methods.

The effort to better rural conditions is touching a fundamental problem of American life. The "back to the soil" agitation can have little permanent effect until we go back to the tiller of the soil with the inspiration and enlightenment of modern ideals and methods. We must carry the message into every fertile valley and to every mountain side; we must get back from the traveled roads and the steam and electric lines; we must reach the little isolated schoolhouses, the country churches and every other agency that can be a source of help. We can give the schoolteacher and the itinerant preacher a broader viewpoint and deeper interest in the welfare of their charges—an interest deeper because more practical and more hopeful.

Nor must we rest with this. A striking feature of the new movement is the determined effort to show the business man in the city that he has a point of intimate contact with the farmer—that in mutual help is to be found advantage for both.

We like this work because it is based on sound social lines. It is in harmony with the finest ideals of the time. There is immense satisfaction to Kentuckians in finding the old state assuming a place of leadership in an undertaking so splendid and so promising.—Editorial in Louisville Herald, April 2.

How to Aid Schools.

Our public schools are not what they should be by any means mainly because of the disinterestedness of the parents. Co-operation is absolutely necessary if you would have a successful school taught in your community. Show your interest by visiting your school. Get acquainted with the teacher, learn her strong as well as her weak point and let her understand that you are interested. Let the children also know that you place a value upon their work.—Berry Otis.

New York's Nickname.

Gotham is the name of a village in England whose inhabitants, according to ancient tradition, were noted for their unsophisticatedness and simplicity and hence were called, by way of ridicule, "the wise men of Gotham." English legends and rhymes refer to the wise men of Gotham, and Washington Irving, in Salmagundi, applied it as a nickname to New York because the inhabitants were such wiseacres. The nickname has survived its original significance if it ever had any.

Wife's Privilege.

"That is the wife's privilege," remarked the West Ham Clerk to a man who complained that his wife nagged him.—London Globe.

Making All Happy.

"What I deem an appropriate present is a book, and that I must choose for myself," writes a correspondent of the London Chronicle. "To leave the selection to friends would be a catastrophe. Every year, therefore, on behalf of those generously minded individuals who have kindly thoughts toward me, I buy books for myself, tell them, and get the money refunded. And in the measure of monetary value they remember me, I likewise remember them—in any article of their own choosing. And we are all happy."

O thou God Omnipotent, who so carest for every one of us, as if thou caredst for him alone; and so for all, as if all were but one! To thee will I intrust whatsoever I have received from thee. So shall I lose nothing. Thou madest me for thyself, and my heart is restless until it repose in thee. Amen.—St. Augustine.

ANSWER THE CALL

Earlington People Have Found That This is Necessary

A cold, a strain, a sudden wrench, a little cause may hurt the kidneys.

Spells of back-ache often follow, Or some irregularity of the urine. A splendid remedy for such attacks.

A medicine that has satisfied thousands

Is Doan's Kidney Pills, a special kidney remedy.

Many Earlington people rely on it. Here is Earlington proof.

Mrs. Henry Clay Smith, Earlington, Ky., says: "You may use my statement as here-to-fore recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. Whenever we have occasion to use them in our family, the results are fine."

Mrs. Smith is only one of many Earlington people who have greatly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctively for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same Mrs. Smith had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. "When Your back is Lame—Remember the Name."

Names and Faces.

She—"It seems strange that you did not remember my face and yet you remember my name." He (awkwardly)—"Well, you know, you have an attractive sort of name."

Strong in Memory.

Rural winter joys increase in an inverse ratio to the square of the distance, or words to that effect. It will be noticed that Whittier did not write "Snow Bound" until after he had become a city-dweller and the memory of frosted nose and ears and tingling hands and feet had become dimmed and vague. A too accurate memory, like acute truthfulness, is a terrible handicap for a real poet, just as it is to an editor.

Cures Old Sores, Other Remedies Won't Cure.

The worst cases, no matter of how long standing, are cured by the wonderful, old reliable Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil. It relieves pain and promotes healing. 25c, 50c, $1.00.

Why Snow is Warm.

Snow is warm by virtue of its light and woolly texture. But it is also warm on account of its whiteness. Had snow been black it would have absorbed the heat of the sun and melted quickly. Instead, it reflects heat, and the reflected heat falls upon bodies above the snow, while the warmth of the earth is preserved beneath it.

There is no real need of anyone being troubled with constipation. Chamberlain's Tablets will cause an agreeable movement of the bowels without any unpleasant effect. Give them a trial. For sale by All Dealers.

Bishop Not Qualified.

Comments by the bishop of London (Dr. Ingram) on the falling birth-rate were quoted by counsel in a case in the Clerkenwell county court, when Judge Cluer remarked: "What has the bishop to do with it? He is not married. Example is better than precept."

COLORED COLUMN.

Foster of Paducah and Rev. Evans her pastor. Her father, brother and sisters from St. Louis and Providence were present.

Rev. T. J. Smith, the State Grandmaster of the Odd Fellows, preached to a large audience at the Mt. Zion Baptist church last Sunday morning. All present enjoyed his excellent sermon. Rev. Evans administered the ordinance of baptism after the morning service.

Each age of our lives has its joys. Old people should be happy, and they will be if Chamberlain's Tablets are taken to strengthen the digestion and keep the bowels regular. These tablets are mild and gentle in their action and especially suitable for people of middle age and older. For sale by All Dealers.

Satisfaction in Life.

I would have nobody to control me; I would be absolute; and who but I? Now, he that is absolute can do what he likes; he that can do what he likes can take his pleasure; he that can take his pleasure can be content; and he that can be content has no more to desire. So the matter's over; and come what will come, I am satisfied.—Cervantes.

But He Wouldn't Get Up.

There was not even standing room in the crowded electric car, but one more passenger, a young woman, wedged her way along just inside the doorway. Each time the car took a sudden lurch forward she fell helplessly back, and three times she landed in the arms of a large, comfortable man. The third time it happened he said, quietly: "Haden't you better stay here?"—Exchange.

Where "Yiddish" Comes From.

The Hebrews who live in Germany speak the German language, using among themselves a peculiar dialect called "Yiddish," that term being itself a corrupt form of the German word Yudisch. Russian Hebrews also use this language, while by a curious chat of historic events Turkish Hebrews speak Spanish. Printed Yiddish shows an interesting combination of languages, the words being essentially German, but printed in Hebrew characters.—Christian Herald.
